

2018 d'ARENBERG
THE STUMP JUMP WHITE

Review Summary

89 pts “Limpid straw-yellow. Lemon zest, pear skin and a hint of fennel on the nose and palate. Dry and taut with subtle herb and ginger notes appearing as the wine opens up. Put on weight with air and shows an appealing floral note on the firm, nicely persistent finish.”

88 pts/TOP VALUE “Fragrant, with white flower, matcha and yellow raisin details on a medium body, with a refreshing thread of acidity. Finds harmony, finishing with a note of candied orange peel. Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Marsanne and Roussanne.”

88 pts/BEST BUY “This vintage of d'Arenberg's Riesling-dominated white blend, is, like the Sauvignon Blanc, a little reductive at first. With swirling and warming in the glass it soon reveals appealing aromas of buttered green beans, lemons, figs, fresh green herbs and a saline note. Tongue-tingling acidity slices somewhat awkwardly through a slippery texture.”
