

2018 d'ARENBERG THE HIGH TRELLIS CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

91 pts “A perfectly honest cabernet, in terms of price and fealty to variety and region. Blackcurrant, damson plum, hedgerow, a smear of olive and a douse of sage across the finish. Dutifully fresh, a little salty. Attractive drinking.”

88 pts “Leans into herbal and gravel notes, with dense, muscular tannins. Shows bay leaf, thyme and tobacco leaf accents that mingle with tart berry and cherry flavors, with the tannins firming up on the finish and notes of green tea that linger.”
