

2019 TAMAR RIDGE PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

95 pts “Typical deep colour; a highly expressive and fragrant bouquet of spiced plum, forest floor and charcuterie lays down the path for the palate, with whole-bunch savoury notes alongside a rich core of juicy plum and berry flavours. Great value.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
March 10, 2022

91 pts “Very bright, medium purple/red colour, young and vibrant, which also describes the aroma, loaded with sweet raspberries and strawberries, fairly straightforward, while the palate is bright and firm and seems young for its age, with lively acidity and a slight impression of austerity. It has a decidedly ‘cool’ feel, and would go best with food.”

Huon Hooke
The Real Review
June 13, 2021