CLIMATE: The East Coast of Tasmania exhibits classic cool climate with cold nights and warm, mild days. The nearby maritime influence provides valuable protection from extreme weather, reducing risk of destructive frosts in the growing period. Generally, the weather runs from the west leaving Devil's Corner's vineyard in a rain shadow for much of the year allowing for near perfect growing conditions.

WINEMAKING: Devil's Corner's Hazard Vineyard located on Tasmania's East Coast is the primary source for the Pinot Noir. This is a wine all about creating a light, bright, soft, fruit-forward Pinot Noir so the grapes are picked quite early to retain their freshness. Very little cold soak and just whole berry ferments in static fermenters using an air maceration technique that allows gentle extraction of color and tannins without overpowering the wine. Vegan-friendly.

TASTING NOTES: A brightly colored Pinot Noir with youthful purple tones. Beautifully perfumed bouquet of spiced dark fruits and red raspberries. Upon entry this Pinot displays a juicy, mid-palate with soft, ripe tannins and fresh acidity. Made in a drink-now style with generous flavors, this cool-climate Tasmanian Pinot Noir can be enjoyed confidently for 3 to 5 years.
