

2014 KILIKANOON ATTUNGA 1865 SHIRAZ

Review Summary

95 pts “The 2014 Attunga 1865 Shiraz shows some greenish notes on the nose—hints of herbs, green peppercorns and eucalyptus. Yet there’s gorgeous underlying ripe fruit in the form of blackberries and cassis, a full-bodied, supple palate and a long, silky finish. Complex and seductive, it should drink well for at least a decade.”

95 pts “From a small patch of vines planted in the Attunga Vineyard just north of Auburn. It’s powerful and very savory...”

93 pts “This has a very rich and earthy nose with dried-blackberry and leafy aromas, leading to a palate that has intensely rich dark berries and cherries and a long, polished finish.”
