

2017 d'ARENBERG THE GALVO GARAGE

Review Summary

90 pts “This is good: a warm-climate maritime rendition of a classic bordeaux blend. The acidity is a bit overwrought. But aromas of cassis, bouquet garni, graphite and hedgerow are on the money. A floral lift, a swab of sage and black olive-doused tannins steer what is ultimately a full-bodied savoury wine. Good value, too.”
