

2019 ROBERT CRAIG HOWELL MOUNTAIN CUVÉE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

92 pts “The 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain Cuvée is a new entry-level wine in this range. The addition of Merlot works so well in softening some of the young Howell Mountain contours. Even so, there is plenty of energy underpinning the bright red cherry fruit. Mint, pine and floral accents resonate across the persistent finish. The 2019 is a jewel of a wine and a fabulous value.”
