

2021 DEVIL'S CORNER
CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

Devil's Corner

92 pts “Fresh and light, but not shy on intensity. A touch of toasted sesame seed, fresh grated ginger and salted melon flavors add complexity to the core of citrus and ripe stone fruit flavors. Vibrant, mouthwatering acidity weaves in and out, highlighting all the details.”

89 pts “The 2021 Chardonnay is tight and tense, with a taut line of acidity that spools through the fruit in the mouth. Macadamias, peaches and apples mingle with preserved citrus, dried sage and a hint of passionfruit. For a circa $20AUD wine, this has got many lovely qualities. Classy little wine.”

88 pts “This bottling is quite a blousy, rich style. It leads with aromas of peach, orange and lemon sherbet, backed by cream and toasty oak. The palate offers mouthwatering acidity and creamy texture with a lick of oak and a lemony finish. Still young, this is likely to improve with another year or two in bottle.”
