

2019 YERINGBERG CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

95 pts “Where to start? There’s a lot of flavour and depth here. It’s not too big, although full of stone fruits and citrus, candied and fresh, with some spicy grilled nuts and a creamy lusciousness. Savouriness, too, with oak neatly in place. The overall impression is a stylish wine.”

Jane Faulkner
Halliday Wine Companion
August 2021