

2022 KILIKANOON MORT'S BLOCK RIESLING

Review Summary

96 pts - Top White Wines under $30 “Old, low-yielding vines. Light, bright green-quartz. The delicately perfumed bouquet takes some coaxing to reveal itself, the palate following without the need of persuasion. It is bright and lively, bringing citrus, Granny Smith apple, and slinky acidity from the first sip through to the lingering finish.”

93 pts “Very aromatic, with a slew of citrus-blossom, hibiscus and jasmine aromas alongside the tart mango and lime fruit. Juicy and generous on the medium-bodied palate, with a touch of blood-orange character at the long, crisp finish.”

92 pts “This 2022 Mort's Block Riesling is very good. 2022 was a superstar year for the Clare Valley, and it is evident here in the cool concentration and fine, pithy minerality of the wine in the mouth. Long and spooling, this is good.”
