

2022 JOHN DUVAL WINES CONCILIO GRENACHE

Review Summary

91 pts “Heady, fruit-driven and highly likable aromas of blueberry and strawberry compote, with violet and white pepper undertones, flow to a palate that’s midweight with a silky texture and succulent fruit. This crowd-pleasing Aussie Grenache is perfect for the in-between seasons.”

90 pts “This 2022 Concilio has more than a passing resemblance to quality Cotes-du-Rhone with its elegant styling and attractive mix of red currant, black olive, baked earth and dusty spices - a charming combination of sweet and savory. The palate packs a punch with juicy acidity, slightly rustic flavors and a firm tannic undercurrent. It is ready to enjoy now but will improve in bottle for a little while.”
