d'Arenberg - McLaren Vale, South Australia Chester Osborn

d'Arenberg is one of the undisputed kings of Australian Shiraz and other Rhone varieties that have historically defined the region. A century on, under the stewardship of fourth generation winemaker Chester Osborn, in terms of winemaking, not much has changed—all the wines are basket-pressed, the reds foot-trodden during fermentation; everything is done in small batches, leading to an impressive array of bottlings every year. From the Stump Jumps through to the highly-regarded Icons, these wines offer value, individuality and a true taste of McLaren Vale.

A benchmark Australian winery founded in 1970 by Sydney trio Tony Albert, John Beeston and Australia's leading wine critic, James Halliday, Brokenwood evolved from a weekend venture into one of Australia's most reputable wine labels and winemakers, Iain Riggs, who has been with the winery since 1982. Brokenwood is known for producing some of Australia's most long-lived Semillons as well as one of the nation's most iconic single vineyard wines, the Graveyard Shiraz, which Australia's leading auction house, Langton's, lists among the top 25 in the country.

Devil's Corner - Tasmania Joel Tilbrook

Devil's Corner, on Tasmania's East Coast, is one of the wildest and relentless environments on Earth. People say you are a product of your environment and Devil's Corner believes the harshest conditions yield the greatest results. The name comes from intrepid sailors who, while navigating Tasmania's Tamar River, discovered a treacherous bend and named it Devil's Corner. Beyond the tumultuous reach, they found an amazing sanctuary where still waters rewarded their impressive navigational efforts. Today it is home to some of the most stunning vineyards in Tasmania.

Frisk Prickly - Alpine Valleys, Victoria

A team of young gun Australian winemakers and growers couldn't help but ponder the 'Riesling Revolution' as they worked their magic with some of the finest fruit in the downright cold climate of Victoria's Alpine Valleys. Seeing friends slurp down their juice almost any time of the day (brunch-time drinkers were indebted to its low alcohol), alone or with one of their damn hot Thai curries, piqued the thought that a few outside their little hamlet might be equally enamored by it.

Shoofly - Adelaide, South Australia Ben Riggs

Australians are serious about keeping their cool. They may look relaxed as they casually shoo away the incessantly buzzing flies, but the message is clear - life's not going to get them down! What they do take seriously is their winemaking, and it shows with Shoofly's collection of robust wines crafted from hand-selected vineyard sites. These are wines that show Australia at its best.

Yeringberg - Yarra Valley, Victoria Sandra de Pury

Celebrating more than 150 years and five generations strong. A jewel of a vineyard replanted in 1969 on the site of what was one of Australia's most famous vineyards of the nineteenth century. Older vintages of the cabernet have had critics such as Hugh Johnson draw comparisons to Chateau Lafite! The tradition continues with the great-granddaughter, Sandra de Pury, of the founder now producing perfectly poised wines from extremely low yielding vines.

Champagne Collet - Aj, France Sebastien Walasiak

A founding member of COGEVI, Champagne Collet's history harkens back to being at the center of the Revolt Champenoise that began in 1911 and was the impetus for declaring Champagne an appellation. Collet is one of the few champagne houses to have access 600+ acres of Grand Cru and Premier Cru vineyards. And with gastronomy in mind Sebastien Walasiak selects fruit from these vineyards based on power and concentration. Collet's image reflects the Art Deco period that unleashed a creative wave and was the perfect accompaniment to the joy and abandon of life in the 1920s.

Chateau Seraphine - Pomerol, France Charlotte Krajewski

In 2016, the Krajewski family, proprietors of nearby Clos Cantenac in Saint-Emilion, acquired the vines and buildings of two Pomerol estates, Chateau Monbrun and Clos Picassou. The father-daughter team, Martin and Charlotte Krajewski, quickly recognized that property for sale isn't something that happens a lot in Pomerol and that this was a rare opportunity they needed to make happen! The following year the merged properties were renamed Chateau 'Séraphine' after Martin's grandmother.

Clos Cantenac - Saint-Emilion, France Charlotte Krajewski

Clos Cantenac is a small but seductive 15 acre property with carefully planted vines on an exceptional "terroir" close to the prehistoric "Megalith de Pierrefitte." This enchanting Saint-Emilion vineyard and ancient 200-year-old winery was purchased in January 2007 by Martin Krajewski along with his great friend and wine enthusiast Marcus Le Grice from New Zealand. Clos Cantenac proudly respects both the history and culture of the region to traditionally craft these fine Grand Cru wines.

Domaine de Nizas - Languedoc, France Xavier-Luc

Located near the medieval village of Pézenas in the heart of the Languedoc region, Domaine de Nizas' terroir is the unique mosaic of three soil types. Limestone Clay (Marne Calcaire) are white soils that make powerful wines. The Basalt soils are volcanic based, unique within the Languedoc region, and rare throughout the world. River gravel (Villafanchien) is a blend of river pebbles and red clay. It is the soil type often found in the Chateaufort du Pape area of the Southern Rhone Valley.

Chapter 24 - Willamette Valley, Oregon Felipe Ramirez

Chapter 24 Vineyards was named after the last chapter of Homer's epic poem, The Odyssey. A geologist from Chile and a vigneron from Vosne-Romanée explore Willamette Valley's soils revealing new facets of the region's terroir in pursuit of some of Oregon's most quietly expressive and seamless Pinot Noirs. Fruit from more than 50 vineyard sites compose wines for three signature cuvées designated as either 'Fire' (volcanic soils), 'Flood' (sedimentary soils) or the best lots from either soil type selected for 'The Last Chapter,' Chapter 24's top bottling.

Robert Craig Winery - Napa Valley, California Jason Price

In 1990, with the help of three friends he met at business school in Chicago 25 years earlier, Bob founded Robert Craig Winery and arranged to purchase fruit and custom crush his first commercial release of the 1992 vintage.
