

2022 INNOCENT BYSTANDER

CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR

WINEMAKER: Joel Tilbrook
REGION: Central Otago, New Zealand
VARIETAL: 100% Pinot Noir
MATURATION: 10 months in 100% French oak barriques (15% new)
ALCOHOL: 14.0% alc/vol | TA: 5.5 g/L | pH: 3.65

VINTAGE: Central Otago's position surrounded by mountain ranges provides a more continental climate than maritime, and due to its southern location, typically, the vineyards enjoy hot days and cool nights. In 2022, after a slightly warmer than average and longer growing season, the Pinot Noir produced a good quantity, and with ample time to ripen on the vine, was picked at-will with promising quality.

WINEMAKING: Fruit was sourced from a single vineyard in Bendigo, known for its premium output. 31% of the grapes were kept as whole bunches and juice was added to partially submerge those bunches. The fermenters were left to cold macerate until fermentation by indigenous yeasts began. After fermentation, the wine spent time in barrel for natural settling and was bottled without filtration or fining. This wine is vegan friendly.

TASTING NOTES: Leads with a youthful perfume of fresh raspberries and black currant, black tea and violets. The crisp palate reveals the wonderfully ripe vintage, with juicy Morello cherry, mulberry and a hint of earth, lifted by its vibrant natural acidity. A delicate tannin structure dances on the palate, with a fine, round finish.

CRITICAL ACCLAIM: Not yet rated. 2021: 92 pts Wine Enthusiast
