

2020 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

LEEUWIN ESTATE
THE ART OF FINE WINE

96 pts “This vintage is not yet released, but it is already shimmering with verve. The entry is bright and compelling: a heady mix of dried herbs, ripe red berries, salted plum and graphite, the fruit shining through a generous smattering of cedary oak. Imbued with elegance, the acid drive is compelling and assists the supple tannins with a long, fine finish. Like a spiderweb woven with silver thread, the beauty of this wine’s tension keeps you suspended until its very last moment on the palate. The finest vintage of Art Series Cabernet yet, a blend of 98% Cabernet Sauvignon and 2% Malbec that spent 22 months in French oak barrels, 50% new.”

95 pts “The red variety that put Margaret River on the map, this is a still-young, polished bottling that’s structured for a marathon, not a sprint. Showing a cool edge from its southern locale, there are notes of red currant, savory herbs, pencil lead, flowery soap and a lick of chocolatey oak. Lifted acidity, well-tucked oak, tangy fruit and fine-grained tannin make for a sculpted, powerful palate. There’s lots of life left here. Drink 2025–2040. Old Bridge Cellars. Cellar Selection.”

93 pts “This well structured 2020 Cabernet Art Series is built to last. It boasts punchy black cherry and blackberry aromas lifted by violets, freshly cut cedar and new French oak. Gravelly tannins envelop densely packed graphite flavors with impressive grip quality and length. One of the best releases yet under this label.”
